

Instructions for Making a Quadrant

To make a quadrant, use PVC pipe or wood for the frame. A meter square is a good size. Then tie string every 20 centimeters to make a grid. Students should note species at each point where the string crosses, thus getting a statistical representation of what plants lie in that meter square.

