

Handout #3 – Pop Quiz on history of war coverage – with answers

1. What are the two major tools of reporting in the Civil War?
2. During World War I, the Espionage Act stated that what kind of newspapers couldn't be mailed?
3. Reporters are allowed to write and publish freely during World War I – true or false?
4. What kind of censorship is relied on in World War II?
5. During the Korean War, reporters had trouble reporting due to lack of what?
6. What kind of journalism becomes prevalent during the Vietnam War, allowing it to be termed “the living room war”?
7. During the Gulf War, what kind of reporting system was established by the military for reporters?
8. What did television viewers see for the first time during the Gulf War?
9. What kind of reporting technology benefitted reporters during the Bosnia/Kosovo crisis?
10. Because of the terrible dangers to journalists during the Bosnia/Kosovo crisis, the U.N. allowed journalists to be transported on what for the first time ever?